PRESS ADVISORY

Solutions for Affordable Housing to Be Discussed at Breakfast Nelson, Flanagan and Floreen will be Panelists

April 14, 2008 – Silver Spring, MD Montgomery Housing Partnership Circle of Builders Club will present a panel discussion, Creating Solutions for Developing Affordable Housing: Public-Private Perspective, at a breakfast on April 16, 2008 at 7:30 a.m. at Chevy Chase Bank in Bethesda.

This panel discussion will feature Richard Y. Nelson, Director of Montgomery County Department of Housing and Community Affairs, David Flanagan, President of Elm Street Development, an award winning real estate development company with extensive experience in affordable housing and Nancy Floreen, a second term Montgomery County Councilmember-at-large and long-time supporter of affordable housing.

The event will be held at the Chevy Chase Bank located at 7501 Wisconsin Avenue in Bethesda. This event is open to invited guests and members of the press.

Montgomery Housing Partnership's (MHP) mission is to preserve and expand quality affordable housing in Montgomery County. This mission is accomplished by acquiring, rehabilitating, building and managing quality affordable housing. MHP also enhances the vitality of the neighborhoods in which affordable housing is located and develops and implements community life programs in those neighborhoods. MHP is a nonprofit organization that has been in operation since 1989 and has over 1,000 properties in its portfolio.
