

BIOGRAPHY

ROBERT A. GOLDMAN, ESQUIRE PRESIDENT MONTGOMERY HOUSING PARTNERSHIP

Robert A. Goldman has been President of Montgomery Housing Partnership (MHP) since 2001. He also has worked in housing policy at the federal and local levels. He is a recognized expert in affordable housing and in 2017 was selected as Practitioner of the Year by the National NeighborWorks® Association.

Goldman is a past president and current member of the Housing Association of Nonprofit Developers (HAND), as well as a member of the Community Development Network of Maryland. He has served on the Urban Land Institute (ULI) Washington Housing Initiative Council, the Maryland Sustainable Growth Commission, the Wheaton Redevelopment Steering Committee, and the Long Branch Task Force.

Prior to joining MHP, Goldman worked as a Senior Development Officer at the Enterprise Social Investment Corporation (ESIC) where he was involved in syndicating low-income housing tax credit projects. He received his Juris Doctorate from UCLA Law School, his master's degree in Real Estate from Johns Hopkins University, and his bachelor's degree in Public Policy from Duke University.

A native Washingtonian, Goldman lives in Montgomery County, Md., with his wife and daughter.

About MHP

MHP is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that creates quality, affordable homes. It accomplishes its affordable housing mission by housing people, empowering families, and strengthening neighborhoods. Formed in 1989 to meet Montgomery County's growing need for affordable housing, MHP builds, acquires and rehabilitates apartments, condos and homes for low- and moderate-income families, seniors, and veterans. Through its affiliates, MHP has developed and owns more than 1,700 residences across the county, including in transit-oriented neighborhoods in Silver Spring, Takoma Park, Rockville, Wheaton, and Gaithersburg.

MHP's holistic approach to housing includes providing affordable rents, developing educational programs for residents to develop skills that expand their opportunities, and implementing neighborhood revitalization efforts in communities impacted by economic downturns.
